Dear Charlie:

Many thanks for your letter. As to the sack and food, I expect to be staggering around on the heels of Dick Mayes through most of the weekend. He will be coming up from Virginia for the game. Dick is presently employed by WSSV, Petersburg, Va, a 250 watt whistle not too far from Richmond. I don't envy him.

Anyway, Charlie, I think I'll leave it pretty much up to Dick as to where we wind up during the weekend. Thanks a lot for the invitation, and if the opportunity presents itself I'll very gladly take you up on it.

John Gambling writes from Dartmouth that they couldn't swing things with WXPN on the interview angle. I doubt if it was Dartmouth's fault, although it is hard to say as the game was very early in the season.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you as to whether or not you will be able to use me as a spotter. I seriously doubt that we will have any intention of broadcasting the game unless someone wants to sponsor it, which, as you probably know, is not the surest thing in the world.

Cordially yours,

Howard Eaton, Jr.
